

- Can you suspect chronic renal failure from a CBC?
- Do you know difference between a patient of Dengue with only IgM positive and one with both IgM & IgG positive?
- In a case with raised S Bilirubin can you confidently state that there is NO liver disorder?
- Can you order a test to confidently tell a woman that her irregular periods are due to impending menopause?

Learn ALL this and much more...

Interpretation & Clinical co-relation of commonly used lab investigations

Full day Seminar

Sunday 11th July 2010 □ Mumbai

CMHF

Surveys □ CME □ Social Medicine

CM Health Foundation

Initiative

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

Investigation to be covered:

- CBC, Blood indices
- Urinalysis
- Liver function tests
- Tests for Diabetes
- Lipid profile

- Renal function tests
- Tests for Rheumatic disorders
- Hormones
 - o Thyroid
 - o Tests for Infertility/ pregnancy
- IgG, IgM, IgE, IgA
- Allergy testing

Faculty

Dr C H Asrani, Dr Hemant Patel, Dr Asmita Shah

When: Sunday, 11th July 2010. 9.30 am to 5.00 (Sharp)

Where: Lecture Hall, Golden Jubilee Block, Tata Memorial Hospital, Parel, Mumbai 400012.

Registration: Rs 500/- including course material, tea/ coffee & lunch. Each delegate will be awarded certificate of attendance, e-assessment after 2 weeks.

Delegate fee to be paid by cash/ local cheque favoring, 'C M Health Foundation' payable at Mumbai

For detailed program & Registration contact: C M Health Foundation. 7, Maitri Chaya. Opp Vidyanaagari, Kalina. Mumbai 400098. 02226663156. e-mail: register@cmhealthfoundation.org